Minutes of the last Meeting

The meeting was called to order by President Jarred McDaniel. There were no guests.

Treasurer's Report

Jim reported we have $2638 in the bank. Everyone is reminded to help pay for the coffee and refreshments by making a contribution in the jar next to the coffee pot.

We will have a shop tour of wheelright and carriage restorer Harlan Olson's shop on the morning of January 18. Jim will make arrangements.

Dean encouraged all turners to consider joining the AAW. He used the very fully packed and helpful December American Woodturner magazine as an example of the benefits available. There is also the Woodturning FUNDamentals program which is directed at learning turning, and is an excellent resource.

Jarred is arranging a group purchase of CA glue from E-Zbond.com. We will get wholesale prices on thin, medium, and thick CA, as well as accelerator. It comes in 2, 8, and 16 ounce sizes and keeps a very long time in the refrigerator. Those interested in participating need to let Jarred know as soon as possible.

Jarred reviewed the pretty good response he got from his request for volunteers to do demos and for members to request specific demonstrations. This will be very helpful as we plan our meetings for the coming year.

President's Challenge

Wishing not to have the members rest on their laurel's, Jarred presented his challenge for the next meeting: Make something brand new to you.

There was a robust Show and Tell, and the raffle featured well aged plum wood donated by a local woodworker. The demonstration was a multi-demo of making different ornaments, with a hands-on option. There was a lot of enthusiastic attention from those present.

Announcements

Group CA glue purchase. The glue is in and Jarred will make arrangements for pick up. The easiest thing all around might be to bring your payment and take it home from the January meeting.

President's Challenge for January: Make Something New to You, the very epitome of challenging yourself and the whole point of this feature. The wide open possibilities may be daunting. Are you up to doing something completely unfamiliar?

January Shop Tour: The shop of Harlan Olson (highcountryhorsedrawn.com). Per Jim Rendle--"Harlan has an amazing business covering the whole gambit of vintage horse drawn wagon refurbishment. From wooden spoke wheel building, to upholstery and everything in between." Saturday, January 18, 10 am, at 6350 Heavenly Lane. We will send directions in a subsequent mailing.
