

NRWG Newsletter May 2010

Apology: I am extending my most sincere apologies for being so behind. I should have had this out last week!

Updates:

- Next Month's meeting is at Ron Lerner's place. (Tomorrow, June 10th). For Directions see the website.
- Between June 30th and September 1st we have a display case reserved at the Belgrade Public Library. The case is 24 in. wide, 48 in. deep, and 18 in. high. Shelves are adjustable, but small works are preferred (Obviously) Please Contact John Morrison for details.
- "The Hat" will be raffled off at this meeting.
- Last meeting until September!!!
- Except, July 21st (a Wednesday) We have a demo from Alan Lacer. Tom has kindly told us we could use his shop. The club will cover the evening demo, if you wish to participate in the daytime hands on part, it will cost some money. The more people who sign up for the hand son, the less expensive it will be per person.

Treasury Report:

Current Balance is $1539.97

If you haven't paid your dues, talk to Nick Nickelson! Thanks.

Demo:

Jess showed us how to make and use a pocket joint jig! How exciting! Thank you Jess!!

Show and Tell: Thanks to all who bring in their works to share!

- Ivan Flock
- Dan Olsen
- Jim Larson
- Tom Robinson
- Susan Razzano
- Gordon

Miscellaneous:

24 people attended the meeting

3 of those people were guests.

At least 2 of whom I hope chose to join us!

Welcome Charlie and Steve!!!

Thanks all for bearing with my scatterbrain-ness!

See you all at the meeting!

(At Ron's)
